M'NAMARAS AWAIT CALL BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

ALEXANDER LEADS BY 36,524 REGENT OF CHINA QUILTS

Los Angeles Mayor Overwhelms Socialist Harriman, McNamara Attorney

City Also Defeats Prohibition; 70,000 Women Cast Ballots

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—With nine precincts missing, the vote for Mayor at 2:30 stood:

Alexander 55,183; Harriman, 48,630; Alexander's majority, 36,524.

Three hundred and seven precincts out of 317 gave on Prohibition:

For, 33,792; against, 87,661.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—The total vote of 270 out of 317 precincts that participated in the election showed today:

Mayor George Alexander, Good Government, 63,366.

Job Harriman, Socialist, 37,066.

Alexander's majority, 26,300.

The 47 missing precincts were expected to swell Alexander's lead to more than 37,000. The Prohibition amendment was beaten apparently by an even greater majority.

The Good Government and Citizen's Committee forced aside a amendment of the Socialist ticket. At one time last night it seemed that Frank Wolfe, formerly editor of The Morning Herald, and Socialist candidate for council, might pull through, but later returns this morning crushed his hopes.

CLAIMS VICTORY.

Job Harriman, the defeated Socialist candidate for Mayor, issued statement today, in which he claimed that the showing of the Socialists was a tremendous victory.

"Our campaign starts today," he declared. "We will take the legislature next year. Our committees are getting into shape, and our convention will be held soon."

Harriman added that the showing made yesterday was something of which Socialists could be extremely proud.

The city was treated to a copious rain today, and Socialists' leaders de-

Mono Lake Highway Is Accepted by Engineer

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 6.—State Engineer Nat Ellery today accepted the Mono lake basin highway, running from Mono lake to the Yosemite national park, and in the acceptance the announcement is made that a surety company was obliged to spend $22,000 in completing the highway because of the failure of the contractor upon whom bonds the company had given security. When the road was partly finished the contractor failed and State Engineer Ellery held the bond company responsible. The company took up the work where the contractor left off and pushed it to completion.

Vessel Bound for Colon Ashore on Cat Island

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Dec. 6.—The steamer Marando is ashore at Cat Island, one of the Bahamas. She was bound for Colon with machinery for the canal. The Marando is lying in an exposed position and is likely to be a total wreck.

Possibly there is a mistake in the name of the steamer, as no such vessel is listed in the maritime registers or other records.

Negroes and Negress Tied To Wagon and Burned

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 6.—Two negroes and one young negress were burned to death by a mob of white land tenants who object to the occupancy of land by negroes, near Savannah, Tenn., according to meager reports received here today. The lynchings are said to have occurred 10 miles from Clifton, Tenn. The three negroes were traveling to a gin with a load of seed cotton. They were waylaid and tied to the wagon load of cotton, it is said, and the mob, after building a fire beneath the wagon, stood guard until the negroes were cremated.

Nine Workmen Killed When Building Topples

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 6.—Nine

workmen are known to have been killed in the collapse of a concrete building here today and it is feared from fifteen to twenty others are buried in the ruins. Fire broke out in the debris after the building fell

Capture of Wong Po Reported by Cable

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—Dispatches received here today from Shanghai by the Chung Kai Yat Po, a Chinese daily paper, report the capture of Wong Po, a city to the north of Hankow, in the Hupeh province, by revolutionaries. The town of Hao Kan, where the imperialists have made a decided stand, is said to be the scene of another fight.

A provisional convention has been called at Canton to devise means of restoring peace and security, according to a Hongkong safe.

Twenty Young Chinese Sail to Aid Rebels

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—A party of twenty young Chinese, former students in American schools and universities, sailed for the Orient today on the liner Korea to offer their services to the revolutionary party. They have letters of introduction from the Chinese National Association to Wu Ting Fang at Shanghai and Governor Wu Han Min at Canton, and to other leaders. In order to save the revolutionaries unnecessary expense the young men are traveling steerage.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—To prevent railroads from controlling water lines through the Panama canal, Representative Knowland of California has introduced two bills penalizing any coastwise water lines that may be controlled by railroad companies. One of the bills fixes the Panama tolls at from 50 cents to $1.50 per net ton.

The bill provides that no nation except the United States and Panama shall be given any preference in the matter of toll rates. It also leaves entirely to the discretion of the President the assessment of rates and whether tolls shall be levied on a tonnage basis or according to the size and character of the vessel passing through the canal.

The bill will be one of those taken up by the committee on Interstate and foreign commerce, which will make a trip of inspection to the canal some time next week, and which will, upon its return begin to frame laws governing the operation of the canal.

Five Killed, Score Hurt in Train Wreck

PITTSBURG, Dec. 6.—Five trainmen were killed and a score injured, a number of them seriously, shortly before 8 o'clock this morning in a wreck of two freights and an express train on the Pennsylvania railroad at Devil's Bend, one-half mile east of Monroeville, Pa.

The wreck was due to the colliding of an extra westbound freight. A second extra freight, which followed, ran into the rear of the first. The impact threw both trains from the tracks. Before the flagmen could give warning the fast Chicago train, carrying nothing but express, pushed along the westbound passenger track into the wreckage of the freights. The express train was thrown from the rails and went over a 20-foot embankment.

The committee investigating violations of the anti-trust act of 1890 and other acts will resume its hearings on Monday, December 11, 10:30 a.m. If you care to appear before this committee an opportunity to do so will be afforded. Kindly advise me of your pleasure in the matter.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—One thousand dimes, all received as tips during two years, were paid today by Miss Ivy Cole, a waitress in a local cafe, for a fur coat, and when she selected the coat and began to draw from various bags and pockets the proprietor of the store where the purchase was made voiced a mild protest.

"It took me just two years to get those dimes," said Miss Cole. "Two years ago today before Thanksgiving I decided to save the tips I received in dimes until I got $100 and then buy a fur coat. It is not so easy as it sounds, either."

GOVERNMENT AGENT PLANS INVESTIGATION OF DYNAMITE PLOT

Sheriff Ordered to Keep Prisoners in Los Angeles Jail Until Lawler Gives Word; Bribery Interests

BROTHERS BLAMED BY DETECTIVE BURNS FOR MANY EXPLOSIONS IN QUAKER CITY

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—Subpensas for the McNamara brothers to appear before the federal grand jury had not been issued up to noon today and Oscar Lawler, in charge of the government's investigation into the alleged dynamiting conspiracy, was debating with his assistants about the best way to secure the desired information from the two prisoners.

There is some question, it is said, as to the competency of testimony of a confessed murderer, such as James B. McNamara, and some indecision as to the best way of bringing to the attention of the grand jury facts in the possession of John J. McNamara. Lawler and Edward A. Regan, assistant United States district attorney here, wrestled with legal phases of the matter today and as the grand jury does not convene until tomorrow it is expected that no decision would be reached before then.

In the meantime the two brothers spent a gloomy day in their cell, looking out through the grated windows of the county jail upon bleak, rainy streets, deserted as compared with the crowd which filled them yesterday. Sheriff Hammel has orders not to move the prisoners until he hears from Lawler.

Interest today centered not only upon the grand jury proceedings that are to come up, but upon expected revelations in the Franklin bribery case, which will be continued on Monday. These two things constitute the Los Angeles end of the big case still remaining.

The disposition of Ortie E. McManigal has not yet been determined upon, but it is a foregone conclusion that he will testify before the grand jury before he is brought to trial by the state, and in his case, at least, the question of competency will be availed.

Malcolm McLaren, the local representative of the detective agency which arrested the McNamaras and McManigal, conferred at length with Lawler today about the details of McManigal's confession, which was the first big factor in the case against the McNamaras.

Brothers Blamed for Philadelphia Outrages

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 6.—The McNamara brothers were responsible for explosions here which damaged the structural iron of several building operations, according to William J. Burns, the detective, who arrived in Philadelphia today from Cleveland.

"I am positive that both of them were responsible for the explosions here during the last few years," Burns said, "and others are implicated."

Burns said the investigation here involved the explosion which occurred about a year ago in the safe of Harry Edwards, fight promoter, which was being reconstructed, and another that damaged the iron being placed in position for the Philadelphia Rapid Transit Company's elevated road on Delaware avenue and on Market street. This work was being done by the American Bridge Company. In these explosions no person was killed or injured.

DYNAMITE FOUND.

Following the explosions sticks of dynamite were found in an alley near the building of the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company, in the center of the city.

Burns says he has knowledge that one of the McNamaras was registered at a local hotel the day the explosion in Edward's place occurred. He also said that Ortie McManigal told him he came here under instructions to blow up a railroad bridge, but when he found the structure was near several tenement houses he feared there would be loss of life.

Asked if any further arrests would be made in connection with the prosecution at Los Angeles, alleging to have been a part of the conspiracy case, Burns replied in the affirmative.

"Will the arrests include any past or present member of the Structural Iron Workers' Union?"

"I do not care to say," but I will

Fund for McNamara Said to Be $400,000

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—The fund raised by union labor for the defense of the McNamaras is said to have exceeded $400,000. Of this $170,000 is reported to have been given by their own union, the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers.

Up to October 25, when the last statement was made by Secretary Frank Morrison, the American Federation of Labor had collected $194,632.53 from various international labor unions. Since then about $35,000 more has been collected.

In a statement issued by Secretary Morrison it was shown how the fund was distributed.

Would Use Funds to Find Evidence

GRAND JUNCTION, Colo., Dec. 6.—Members of the local lodge of the International Association of Machinists last night passed resolutions recommending that all remaining funds contributed to the McNamara defense be used to ferret out evidence against others who may be connected with the McNamara dynamiting.

President Gompers of the American Federation of Labor declared that Burns had "told an unqualified untrue when he said I had in any way criticised the District Attorney in Los Angeles."

International Trades Unions in Conference

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 6.—Steps were taken yesterday at a meeting of the conference of international trades unions of Indianapolis, composed of international officers, to protect its members from becoming victims of unfriendly organizations. The conference was organized several months ago, soon after the McNamara brothers were arrested and its purpose was to assist in the defense.

An attempt was made yesterday to disband, but a majority held the organization intact with James M. Lynch of the International Typographical Union, president, and Frank M. Duffy, secretary of the National Carpenters and Joiners' union, secretary.

Resolutions were adopted condemning the McNamaras, but the conference maintained the procedure in taking John J. McNamara from Indiana was wrong. Believing that the same procedure might be adopted in the arrest and deportation of other union officials, the conference decided to be prepared to make a stronger fight than was made in the McNamara case.

In the resolutions it is stated that the so-called kidnapping of John J. McNamara has been accepted as a legal procedure. The resolutions then asked what is to prevent organizations fighting labor from hiring private detectives to break into international union offices, ransack files and carry away books and records.

When President Lynch was asked if he anticipated raids of offices of international unions, he said: "We are not anticipating anything. These steps are being taken merely as a matter of protection."

Gompers Opposed to Capital Punishment

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—"I am glad a death sentence was not imposed. I am opposed to capital punishment under any circumstances. I think the sentences received by both men were appropriate to the crime."

This was the comment of Samuel Gompers last night when asked if he was satisfied with the punishment meted out to the McNamara brothers in Los Angeles.

"I would like to make one statement. Gompers continued, and that is concerning the strictures made by District Attorney Miller of Indianapolis to the wisdom of my leadership of the American Federation of Labor. I want to say that if Miller has a case to prosecute against me, or anybody else, let him go ahead and prosecute; but it is not for him to say whether my leadership is wise or not. I consider his criticism a gratuitous and unwarranted impertinence. Miller has no right to set himself up as a guide. I propose to stand true to the men of labor."

Gompers was asked if it were true that he and other labor leaders were advising an era of pacification. In the winter of 1909 strikes in the future until the country had forgotten the McNamara case.

"All I can say to that," he replied, "is that when employers treat labor as fairly as organized labor treats the employers, then there will be peace. The executive committee of the American Federation of Labor is the greatest conciliatory board that ever existed anywhere. It desires peace and is always ready to meet employers half way."

"Mr. Gompers, did the Bridge and Structural Iron Workers' Union receive any money from any other or-

"GALLOWS IN THE END," IS DARROW'S PREDICTION

Attorney Declares Confession Was Only Door to McNamaras' Safety

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 6.—"Nothing but the gallows at the end" is the outcome predicted last night by Attorney Clarence S. Darrow, as chief of counsel, if the McNamara trial had run to a jury verdict and to subsequent appeals. For the first time Darrow cited specific instances of evidence which he said it would be impossible to refute. Even to have put James B. McNamara on the stand in his own behalf would have been hopeless, he declares.

Judge Bordwell's statement says that James B. McNamara should be tried and even take a death sentence if "his brother could be free," Darrow was told.

"Well," replied Darrow, "I've denied that charge so often that I'm going to do it over again now."

ENTERED RELUCTANTLY.

Darrow's statement is as follows:

"I entered this case with the greatest reluctance, and only after the most earnest persuasion. I did it unwillingly. I have for many years given my time and best ability and my life to the cause of labor and the poor."

"I have been here six months and spent many troubled days and sleepless nights trying to run down every lead and make every possible investigation, and trying to do the best I could for my clients and the cause that I served. I had able associates who gave me their best efforts and their best service through it all."

"From the first there was never the slightest chance to win. To those who say it would have been better to have gone to trial and suffer complete defeat, I would call attention to the fact that there were 30 or 40 hotel registers, three in Los Angeles, many in San Francisco and others in different parts of the country. There were scores of witnesses to identify James B. McNamara as being present specifically on the very day and on, at least, in the building. There was overwhelming evidence of all kinds, which no one could have surmounted if they would."

COULD NOT PROVE ALIBI.

"If the state had put on its case, we would not even then have the defense of the facts. We could not prove an alibi. We could not prove he was not here. The failure to do so would have been as much of an admission as it was today. We were confronted with the situation of dragging our case, perhaps for years, with nothing but the gallows at the end, and no chance to raise any doubt in a thinking mind, and in the minds of persons who could not know the facts, or on such circumstances would have been madness, and only postponing the evil until it would have been a still greater evil, and the consequences graver than they are now."

"All of this was thoroughly understood by my associates, and no one hesitated about accepting it. We acted as we thought right and best, and will take the consequences of the act. I can conceive of no way in which we could justify ourselves and not save the lives of our clients, and in disposing of this case at this time. Our first duty, as lawyers and men, was to the lives in our charge, and our duty to the cause called for the same action as for theirs."

"From the beginning I have been watch-

FUND NOT SECRET SAYS RAPPAPORT

Comments On the Statements of Detective William J. Burns.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 6.—Commenting upon the statement of Detective William J. Burns that the executive board of the organization voted $1000 a month to Secretary-Treasurer John J. McNamara and that the latter expended it in his dynamiting operations, Lee M. Rappaport said:

"The association makes no secret of the fact that sums were voted to McNamara to be used at his disposition in organization work. The records show it, and the records are in the hands of the federal grand jury in this district. Labor unions do not make detailed accounts of organization funds. Mr. Ryan sometimes may have spent $500 in one week, or perhaps not in three months, but the fund renewed continually."

"If J. J. McNamara diverted funds at his disposal to dynamiting purposes it by no means follows that the other officials knew of it. He had complete control of headquarters and was fully trusted in the administration of the office."

Rappaport resisted what he said was the presumption of the National Erectors' association that 100 explosions in different parts of the country were all incidents in a systematic campaign against employers of non-union iron workers.

LOCAL TROUBLE.

"Local labor troubles must be taken into account in this matter," he said, "and anyway, it appears that every time a toy pistol was discharged about an iron construction job the erectors' association jotted down an addition to a great national dynamiting conspiracy charged to the state and a Christian civilization as saying that not mercy but wisdom and the saving of money kept them from killing Jim; not charity but the very passion that prompted him to the very dynamite in the alley."

KILL 1600 WHALES IN SEASON.

STEFFENS ADMITS HE DIDN'T DO IT

Brands Sentencing of the McNamara Brothers as "a Disgraceful Scene."

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 6.—Late last night Lincoln Steffens issued a statement declaring Judge Bordwell to be right in saying he did not bring about the reversal of the pleas in the McNamara cases, but wrong "when he says I claimed the credit (or the blame) for it."

"It would be unfortunate," observed the statement, "if a fine big public act, which, rightly carried out, might spread understanding and a better feeling over a sore spot in our civilization should be degraded into a personal controversy as to whom the credit (or the blame) was due."

"I think the public should be well satisfied with the sentences passed by Judge Bordwell at Los Angeles because Judge Bordwell, an eminently fair and able jurist, considered a life sentence for James B. and fifteen years for John B., adequate punishment; his judgment has all the weight that could be given it by his long study of the case."

HE IS SATISFIED.

"I can say that I am satisfied with Judge Bordwell's disposition of the matter, though I frankly say I think the McNamaras may consider themselves fortunate in escaping a greater penalty."

Burns would not say what were the results of his visit to Cleveland, nor would he outline his future movements, except to say that after spending today in Philadelphia, he would go to New York working on the dynamiting cases in both cities.

He was asked if his work here would result in more arrests or more indictments but he declined to say anything in that connection.

He said that he had no reason to expect that further confessions of the McNamaras would result in indictment of others not now concerned in the dynamiting cases.

clared that if it had come yesterday the result would have been different—a statement that opposition men were willing to concede might be true.

HARRIMAN'S POOR SHOWING.

Harriman made a surprisingly poor race. In many precincts where he had a majority in the primary he fell far short in yesterday's balloting. In his own precinct he lost by a vote of 1537 to 192. Alexander carried his own ward by nearly the same ratio. In the Hollywood precinct Alexander received 1199 votes, as against 23 for Harriman. In Colegrove, where Harriman had a big lead in the primary, Alexander more than doubled the Socialist vote in the election.

The side, known as the residential section of a vast majority of the workingmen, gave a majority of the precincts for Alexander, whereas in the primary he carried scarcely any.

As early as 8 o'clock last night Harriman practically admitted defeat, but refused to make a formal statement. Later, at 9 o'clock, when asked for a statement, he curtly informed the representative of the Associated Press "to go, get your information where you got it before the election."

VOTE OF WOMEN WON.

"It was the vote of the women that returned Alexander to office and snowed over the Socialists," said Field Captain Jeannette Converse of the Women's Progressive League.

"Out of a registration of approximately 75,000 women, 95 per cent voted for Alexander. In one ward we had 1537 to 192. Alexander carried his own ward by nearly the same ratio.

And the women had nothing to do with it," declared one of the leaders of the Women's Progressive League, which took an active part in the election.

The women gave much thought to the election issues and in this instance they believed a flanged rail would better preserve the paving of the streets."

BOESEKE ELECTED MAYOR.

SANTA BARBARA, Dec. 6.—A count of the votes today showed that Dr. Elmer J. Boeseke was elected Mayor in yesterday's non-partisan election, having defeated Wm. Wyles by a majority of more than 500. Only one of the four candidates for reelection to the council was returned to that office. He was Walter Snow. Other new councilmen chosen were W. T. McNight, Basil Fox, Wm. Smith, C. S. Tomlinson, S. W. Frazier and E. Henck. Fifteen hundred women

PROHIBITION BEATEN.

The clerks made no effort to tabulate the returns for the amendments, but 300 incomplete precincts showed clearly that the prohibitory amendment would be lost. These figures gave the amendment 4862 and 12,137 against it.

"We were defeated yesterday in the mayoralty election," said a leading Socialist today, "but tomorrow we will begin the work of electing the next governor of California."

As the count progressed today the showing made by the newly enfranchised women who had cast votes for the first time in an important election in California became more and more remarkable. According to estimates made by election and city officials, the women cast nearly 70,000 votes or half the entire ballot recorded in the election. The effect of this was shown today by statements of former prominent opponents of suffrage that they had been converted.

SUFFRAGE WILL STAY.

"An effort made hereafter to reverse suffrage with a view of reversing the action taken in the special election on constitutional amendments would be overwhelmingly defeated," declared one of the leaders of the anti-suffrage movement.

Election board members declared that the women not only outvoted the men in nearly all the precincts, but showed more aptitude in handling the ballot.

They cast their votes more quickly, they did not need as much coaching and explanation as the men did, it was stated, and they worked harder than the men for their favorite candidates.

Predictions that a reduction in Jos. Scott's vote would show the effect of the McNamara case even more conclusively than the defeat of Harriman

LABOR TO PROFIT, DECLARES BURNS

Brands Samuel Gompers Radical; Thinks Public Is Satisfied.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Dec. 6.—"Organized labor, the decent, orderly element, will profit by the outcome of the McNamara case," Detective Burns said before leaving for Philadelphia. "And just as soon as they rid themselves of such radicals as Samuel Gompers their progress will be all the more rapid and satisfactory."

"I think the public should be well satisfied with the sentences passed by Judge Bordwell at Los Angeles because Judge Bordwell, an eminently fair and able jurist, considered a life sentence for James B. and fifteen years for John B., adequate punishment; his judgment has all the weight that could be given it by his long study of the case."

HE IS SATISFIED.

"I can say that I am satisfied with Judge Bordwell's disposition of the matter, though I frankly say I think the McNamaras may consider themselves fortunate in escaping a greater penalty."

Burns would not say what were the results of his visit to Cleveland, nor would he outline his future movements, except to say that after spending today in Philadelphia, he would go to New York working on the dynamiting cases in both cities.

MORE THAN 200 BID TO LUNCHEON

Civic Progress and Affairs Will Be Discussed Over the Festal Board.

More than 200 invitations have been sent out for the luncheon of the progress and prosperity committee of the Chamber of Commerce, to be held tomorrow at 12:15 p.m. at the Forum cafe, when the celebration of Oakland's sixtieth birthday as a city and other matters will be discussed.

John E. Jordan, chairman of the committee, has the affair in charge and has arranged for a number of prominent speakers following the luncheon proper. These will include A. H. Stoddard, who was prominently identified with the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York and who will speak of suggestions which may be used in Oakland's celebration next May; Joseph Thebaud of the Shanghai and Yokohama clubs of China, who has been prominently identified with American interests in the Far East, and Claude C. Craig of Portland, former member of the progress and prosperity committee. The invited guests will include Mayor Frank K. Mott, the city commissioners, Frank Lamson Brown of the Pan-Pacific Exposition Company and others.

GIRL LIES IN RAIN ON DOORSTEP; DRUGGED

PORLAND, Or., Dec. 6.—Miss Billie McKnight, daughter of a wealthy mining and railroad man of Seattle, lies in St. Vincent's Hospital here today apparently suffering from the effects of a powerful drug and unable to explain her peculiar position.

Miss McKnight, a student at St. Helen's Hall, a fashionable school for girls, was found unconscious late last night near the doorstep of a residence in South Portland, many miles from the school.

She said that she left the dormitory at 5 o'clock last evening for a walk in the spacious grounds surrounding the school, but that was the last she remembers.

She said that she had suffered severely from headaches in the past week and had taken remedies to relieve the pain, and may have taken an overdose, producing a stupor.

GIER'S CONDITION IS REPORTED IMPROVING

Colonel Theo. Gier, who has been seriously ill at his home since last Wednesday, following an attack of heart trouble, is reported this afternoon as slowly improving. Dr. J. Hamilton Todd, who is in attendance, believes that his patient will be bedridden, however, for two or three weeks to come.

TEST WIRELESS FROM ANCHORED AEROPLANE

MARE ISLAND, Dec. 6.—Chief Electrician W. E. Morris and G. S. Williams expect to make their first experiments with the new aeroplane wireless here at the navy yard today. A recently constructed aeroplane will be anchored close to the land and the tests will be made with men by plane.

Upon the return of the complete wireless crew, who are installing a high power plant at Table Bluff, the aeroplane will be hoisted over the wireless hill and tests made from the elevated position.

THEFTS REPORTED.

The following thefts were reported to the police this morning:

PETERSEN CERTAIN OF HERNDON CASE

Captain of Inspector Says He Has No Fear of Damage Suit.

That he has a clear case against Robert Herndon, arrested a few days ago on a charge of conducting a lottery, is claimed by Captain of Inspectors Walter J. Petersen, against whom Herndon has threatened a damage suit amounting to a large sum for false arrest and imprisonment. Herndon, who is the son of a wealthy cotton mill owner of Yorkville, South Carolina, has retained Attorney J. A. Kennedy as counsel.

Herndon was arrested Friday with Samuel Stenzel after the police had investigated the alleged selling of lots in Skaggs Springs, the title to which the police believed was questionable. According to Captain Petersen, the men were disposing of lots by means of a lottery device, and it was on this charge that they were arrested. Herndon's case has been set for December 20, and he is out on bond of $1000. The men sold their lots in connection with a moving picture concern in East Oakland, and they alleged that they are being confused with that operation. "A warrant was issued by the prosecuting attorney on the evidence obtained by my men in this case," said Captain Petersen. "It was considered sufficient basis for the issuance of a warrant, and I have no fear of any damage suit that may be brought."

NEW COMMISSION SCHEDULE RATIFIED

Oakland Real Estate Commission Meets at Chamber of Commerce.

The Oakland real estate association met at the chamber of commerce last evening and ratified the new schedule of commissioners to take effect January 1, 1912. It was pointed out in an address by William J. Layman that while the rates of commissions as adopted, which are virtually those in vogue at Los Angeles, are somewhat higher than the old schedule, both agents and owners would profit by close adherence to the new schedule. Layman declared that the agents are at more expense by reason of the necessity of showing property with automobiles and many other causes and unless properly prepared for their services are unable to do the work expected of them with the same efficiency as they will be if the new schedule is followed. What the selling public needs is results and a good market, he declared, which will give the public better returns on their investments than under a slow market with long waits for income, which necessitates too high prices in order to overcome the loss of interest as a result of inactivity. Better have quick sales and reasonable profits.

GET-TOGETHER SPIRIT.

"What is wanted is a get-together spirit between owners and agents in order to build up the realty business," Layman asserted.

The meeting was also addressed by C. C. Craig of Portland, formerly chairman of the progress and prosperity committee, now manager of the investment department of Hartman & Thompson, the largest sports of the city of Oakland interests. In comparison with other coast cities of California and made several interesting comparisons. He pointed out the great advantages of Oakland's location and climate for all classes of investors.

Mrs. Jack Wyllie, one of the enthusiastic workers of the congregation, is arranging an entertainment for the evening, when the members of the Gamma Kappa Club will appear in the farce entitled "The Kleptomaniac."

Mrs. Chester Langan, formerly soloist in the Plymouth Congregational Church, has charge of the refreshment booth, and will direct the supper, which will be served at 6 o'clock.

The booth has been divided as follows: Fish pond, Mrs. Niles Place; books and calendars, Mrs. H. Linnell; fancy work, Mrs. Brady; dolls, Mrs. F. C. Farmer; household necessities, Mrs. H. C. Goldrich; aprons, Mrs. H. F. Sack; dollscases, Mrs. Ladwig.

Mrs. R. C. Young and a number of members of the various auxiliaries of the parish are perfecting arrangements for the annual benefit.

NEW PASTOR DUE HERE TOMORROW

Rev. Herbert A. Jump Will Be Welcomed at Big Church Reception.

Rev. Herbert A. Jump, formerly pastor of the Congregational church of New Britain, Conn., who has accepted the call to the pastorate of the First Congregational church of this city, to succeed Rev. Charles R. Brown, now head of the Yalti Divinity school, will arrive here tomorrow afternoon. He will conduct the devotional services Sunday morning and will preach the inaugural sermon.

Upon his arrival in this city he will be escorted to the home of Mrs. J. H. Brewer of 770 Kingston avenue, which will occupy for a number of weeks.

The new pastor and his wife will be the guests of honor at a reception by the members of the First Congregational church, December 14, in the parlors of the parish, Twelfth and Clay street.

The affair will be one of the most important social events of the winter season. It will be attended by representatives of the various Congregational churches of this city, who will join in welcoming the newcomers.

SCHMITZ CASES MAY BE DROPPED

Attorney for Former Mayor Objects to Continuance in Taking First Move.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—Attorney Frank Drew, representing former Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz, accused of bribery, objected for the first time this morning to the continuance of the several cases in Judge Lawlor's court. The reason for the objection is that it is desired that the cases be dismissed in the same manner as were the United Railroad charges and the other so-called graft cases. With the withdrawal of consent by counsel for the defendant the law will become operative after sixty days and a motion for dismissal on the ground of lack of prosecution can be made.

TRAVELER HEARD THUMP AND MOANS

The Defense Would Show That Vallier Was Injured by Striking Tunnel.

REDDING, Dec. 6.—Evidence to support the claim that George Vallier received his injuries while passing through the tunnel north of Kennett, was introduced in the trial of Daniel Fleming for the murder of Vallier.

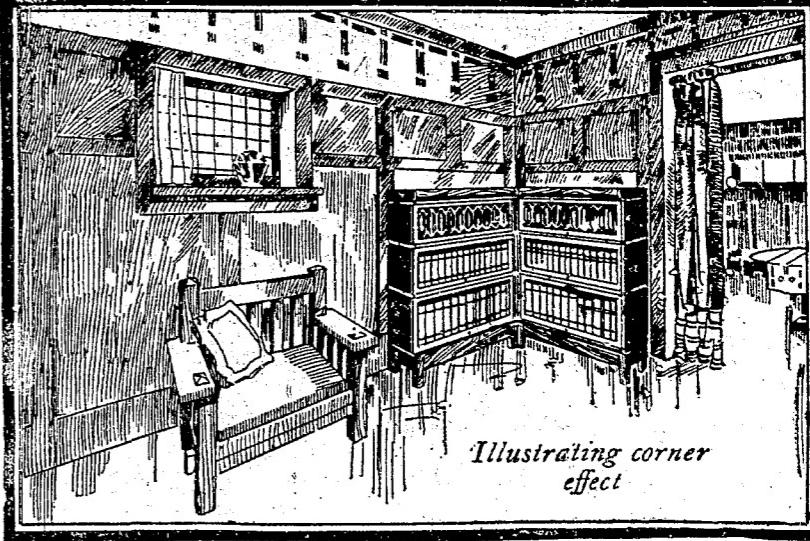

Paul Compton, a traveler from Los Angeles, said he heard a thump on the roof as the train was emerging from the tunnel and later, upon climbing upon an upper berth, heard the sounds of moans coming through the ventilator.

It was on the top of this car, Vallier's body was found, according to the coroner. Vallier was assaulted by Fleming in the Redding yards.

DE FREMERY'S ASK SIX MONTH'S STAY

Would Occupy Old Homestead Until June 1 if Park Commissioners Consent.

The family of the late James de Fremery have addressed a letter to the park commission requesting permission to remain in occupation of the old home in De Fremery park until June 1. Under the terms of the purchase of the park grounds by the city, the De Fremery family was given the privilege of retaining possession of the residence until December 1. Mr. de Fremery's recent death has, however, disturbed all of the plans of the household, on which account an extension of the term of occupancy until June 1 is asked. The park commission will, in all probability, grant the request at the meeting to be held tomorrow.

Under the new constitution of the Young Women's Christian Association, a board of directors and managers was elected by ballot yesterday in the administration building, Fourteenth and Castro streets. ## CHRISTY DEFENDS TECHNICAL SCHOOL

Dean of Mining College Says
Theory as Well as Practice
Is Necessary.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Dec. 6.—Prof. Samuel B. Christy, dean of the college of mining, speaking before the Mining Association last night, defended technical education as opposed to practical experience without theory.

Replies to argument by R. T. Crane, a prominent steel and iron manufacturer of Chicago, who lately has been writing against technical college educations, he said:

"Mr. Crane's help for an engineering education would make him a class artisan, but an indifferent engineer. Mr. Crane, being a manufacturer, looks at the problem from a manufacturer's standpoint and what manufacturers desire is that man who can do the same thing over and over again. This requires no special experience."

Professor Christy said that many young men had come to him deplored the fact that in earlier years they had not taken advantage of a technical education.

"Up to a certain point this class succeeds well," he said, "but they feel their lack of training in later years."

The speaker continued: "The man with the determination to work hard and do his best will always succeed, whether he has a technical education or not, but that technical education gives him a foundation upon which to start."

WATER DISTRICT BILL INTRODUCED

Assemblyman Clark Offers a Measure Eliminating Flaws
From Old Law.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 6.—A resolution was introduced by Assemblyman Clark, on behalf of the Sierra Club, petitioning congress to appropriate $1,000,000 for use in the oesmate national park, $250,000 to be expended each year for the next four years. The Sierra Club is opposing a resolution now before the legislature providing for the re-cession of the park to the state.

Assemblyman Clark introduced a bill repealing the bill for the creation of municipal water districts, passed at the last regular session of the legislature. It was found that the law then enacted, which provided for the organization of municipal water districts and allowed for the municipal ownership of water plants, was impracticable in many small details, which the proposed substitute measure is designed to remedy.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

POPULAR GIRL GETS BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PARTY

ZELLERBACH WILL IS BRANDED RUSE

Mrs. C. V. Cross Declares That Brothers Would Cut Her Off From Estate.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—In her contest of the will of her father, Anthony Zellerbach, founder of the Zellerbach Paper Company, who died October 7 of this year, leaving an estate of several million dollars, Mrs. C. V. Cross, through her attorney, Herbert Chynski, intimates that the will is a ruse, perpetrated by her brothers, to place the entire estate in the hands of her mother, over whom, it is alleged, the brothers have perfect control.

According to the will of the late paper merchant his entire worldly fortunes were left to his widow, Theresa Zellerbach, three sons, Jacob, Isidor and Henry, being named as executors. No provision was made for any of the children, although it is averred that shortly before his death Zellerbach senior transferred to his sons his interest in the Zellerbach Paper Company, with the exception of $2000, said to be his interest in the partnership firm, which, according to Mrs. Cross, has been out of existence since about the time of the fire of 1906.

SAWS HE WAS INCOMPETENT.

The daughter maintains that her father was of unsound mind on February 20, 1904, when his last will and testament was drawn; that he was not competent; that he was hot free from undue influence; that he was a pronounced hypochondriac; and that he was under the influence of certain persons, whose names are unknown, at the time he affixed his signature to the will in question, which has recently been entered for probate.

Every effort will be made by Mrs. Cross to have the will set aside, place the entire holdings of the deceased into an estate and divide it evenly among all of the children.

Those interested in the present contest are: Theresa Zellerbach, widow; Jacob C. Isidor, Henry H., Eugene, Arthur and Llyle Zellerbach; Mrs. Charles V. Cross, Mrs. Hazel Platt and Mrs. Sarah Timke, the latter a sister of Anthony Zellerbach.

TOO MUCH WATER
BRANDED BLIGHT

This Was Not at Anti-Prohibition Meeting, But Before Irrigation Congress.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—"Too much water is as much a blight to the land as none at all," was the pith of addresses given before the nineteenth annual session of the National Irrigation congress today by the delegates who are interested in the reclamation of swamp lands. That the overflooded lands, located chiefly in the Southern and in some Pacific coast states, should be drained and made habitable and that the river courses should be regulated has, according to E. A. Fowler, the president, has become as much a part of the propaganda of the congress as the irrigation problem. It was stated that there are 80,000,000 acres of swamp land in this country, which if drained, would support 90,000,000 of people.

"In other words," said President Fowler, "the swamp lands, if cultivated, would support in themselves a population equal to the present population of the United States."

"Drainage as a Basis for National Development" was discussed by W. L. Park, vice-president of the Illinois Central railroad, and other speakers included George H. Maxwell, executive director of the Pittsburgh flood commission; Delegates from foreign countries were to discuss conditions abroad at this afternoon's session.

ROCKEFELLER'S LAKE IS KIDNAPED BY GOTHAM

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 6.—The mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of a lake on the John D. Rockefeller estate near here one night last week has been solved. It had been kidnapped by New York City. But not intentionally. The Croton aqueduct runs through the Rockefeller estate about 300 feet under ground. It is believed that a crevise was opened and the water from the lake flowed down into the aqueduct.

No complaint had been received from New York of any oily taste in the city, but Rockefeller believes he has supplied the city with several hundred thousand gallons of water. The feeder for the lake is still supplying the water which disappears down a crevice.

Burned and Itched So He Could Hardly Stand It, Tried Medicines, Etc., Nearly 3 Years. In Eternal Misery. Started Using Cuticura Remedies. Now Has No Sign of Skin Disease.

"My troubles began along in the summer to the hottest weather and took the form of small eruptions and itching and a kind of smarting pain. I took me months all over my back and kept getting worse until by May 1st it was so bad with pimples which would burn and itch at night so that I could hardly stand it. This condition kept getting worse and worse until my back was a solid mass of big sores which would break open and run. My underclothing would be a clot of blood."

"I tried various blood medicines and other remedies and salves for three years and I was still getting no benefit. It seemed I was in eternal misery and could not sleep on my back or lean back on a chair. I was finally given a set of the Cuticura Remedies by my brother who recommended them to me very highly. I started using the Cuticura Remedies and inside of two weeks I could see and feel a great relief. I kept on using Cuticura Soap. Only about six weeks and about three or four months' time my back was nearly cured and I felt like a new being. Now I am in good health and no sign of any skin diseases and I am fully satisfied that Cuticura Remedies are the best ever made for skin diseases. I will always recommend them to anybody who would use according to directions. I would not be without them now."

Bullet Lodges in Victim's Jaw; Assailant Held in Detainee.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—A trivial quarrel ending in a fist fight and finally culminating with the sudden drawing of a revolver and the shooting of one of the participants, was responsible for the arrest of Angelo Levogoni of 520 Filbert street and the removal of Joseph Da Martini to the Harbor Hospital. It was at an early hour this morning that Da Martini and Levogoni were in a wine cellar at 116 Jasper place when a disagreement arose and the men decided to settle their difficulties with their fists. In the heat of the fight, which was watched with much interest by the bystanders, Levogoni pulled a revolver from his pocket and fired at his antagonist, who fell to the floor with a bullet in his cheek. At the hospital Dr. Spaulding found that the shot had lodged in the jaw, and although the man is not thought to be seriously hurt, his assailant was held in custody by the police pending the result of the inquiry. The arrest was made by Detectives Wren and Morris.

The leading roles Milton Hook and Frank Marvin handled themselves well, and in the opposite parts Archie Macdowell, as a detective, and Edna Bassett, as a troublemaker, ably supported the title roles.

But the show was a comedy and Leland Taylor, William Rea and Harry Armes brought down the house with their fun-making roles.

The remainder of the cast also was strong, making the play well balanced.

The official journal of the graduates of the class of 1911, made its appearance shortly after the end of the first act and was quickly disposed of.

Miss Claire Soule of the English department, who coached the show, was the recipient of many congratulations.

The members of the cast were Frank Marvin, Leland Taylor, William Rea, Carol Wright, Archie Macdowell, Roy Anderson, Harry Armes, Harold Wadsworth, the Misses Marion Hook, Katherine Crillen, Edna Bassett and Etta Schrock.

Stage Hand Accuses Wife of Insane Jealousy and Sues for Divorce.

Accusing his wife of unwarranted and insane jealousy, William F. Fournier, a stage hand, began suit late yesterday in the Superior Court for a divorce from Frances Fournier. He charges that his work behind the scenes at different theaters was interrupted almost constantly by his wife's invasions, she always imagining that there was undue intimacy between Fournier and various actresses.

Fournier declares in his complaint that his wife would descend upon him in a fury and demand to be shown his particular favorite for the night. When he protested that he had no love affair she would attack him, no matter where they were, who was present or whether Fournier was "showing scenery" or idle. Once, Fournier alleges, his wife broke a cane over his head at a certain theater and the manager excluded her from the play house. Then she transferred the scene of her activities to their home, Fournier reciting in his complaint that his wife bombarded him with cooking utensils, such as coffee pots and cups. He declared his nerves have been so strained by her actions that he lived longer with her would in all probability drive him into an insane asylum.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6.—A chase through the intricate alleys of the old tenement this morning resulted in the arrest by Police McPhee and Moran of Max Goldstein, who was charged with grand larceny. Louis Fleischmann, 223 Third street, had gone into a rear room of the saloon at Broadway and Kearny street, where he often Goldstein picked his pocket of silver coins. He went for the police and McPhee and Moran pursued the fugitive, finally catching him after he had run into a restaurant at 506 Broadway and was trying to jump out of a window.

TOO MUCH WATER
BRANDED BLIGHT

This Was Not at Anti-Prohibition Meeting, But Before Irrigation Congress.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—"Too much water is as much a blight to the land as none at all," was the pith of addresses given before the nineteenth annual session of the National Irrigation congress today by the delegates who are interested in the reclamation of swamp lands. That the overflooded lands, located chiefly in the Southern and in some Pacific coast states, should be drained and made habitable and that the river courses should be regulated has, according to E. A. Fowler, the president, has become as much a part of the propaganda of the congress as the irrigation problem. It was stated that there are 80,000,000 acres of swamp land in this country, which if drained, would support 90,000,000 of people.

"In other words," said President Fowler, "the swamp lands, if cultivated, would support in themselves a population equal to the present population of the United States."

"Drainage as a Basis for National Development" was discussed by W. L. Park, vice-president of the Illinois Central railroad, and other speakers included George H. Maxwell, executive director of the Pittsburgh flood commission; Delegates from foreign countries were to discuss conditions abroad at this afternoon's session.

ROCKEFELLER'S LAKE IS KIDNAPED BY GOTHAM

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Dec. 6.—The mystery surrounding the sudden disappearance of a lake on the John D. Rockefeller estate near here one night last week has been solved. It had been kidnapped by New York City. But not intentionally. The Croton aqueduct runs through the Rockefeller estate about 300 feet under ground. It is believed that a crevise was opened and the water from the lake flowed down into the aqueduct.

No complaint had been received from New York of any oily taste in the city, but Rockefeller believes he has supplied the city with several hundred thousand gallons of water. The feeder for the lake is still supplying the water which disappears down a crevice.

"My troubles began along in the summer to the hottest weather and took the form of small eruptions and itching and a kind of smarting pain. I took me months all over my back and kept getting worse until by May 1st it was so bad with pimples which would burn and itch at night so that I could hardly stand it. This condition kept getting worse and worse until my back was a solid mass of big sores which would break open and run. My underclothing would be a clot of blood."

"I tried various blood medicines and other remedies and salves for three years and I was still getting no benefit. It seemed I was in eternal misery and could not sleep on my back or lean back on a chair. I was finally given a set of the Cuticura Remedies by my brother who recommended them to me very highly. I started using the Cuticura Soap. Only about six weeks and about three or four months' time my back was nearly cured and I felt like a new being. Now I am in good health and no sign of any skin diseases and I am fully satisfied that Cuticura Remedies are the best ever made for skin diseases. I will always recommend them to anybody who would use according to directions. I would not be without them now."

Inventor Puts Gutenberg First in His List of Twenty Greatest Men

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Thomas A. Edison's list of the "Twenty greatest" would not include Andrew Carnegie. Carnegie's included Edison.

"Mr. Carnegie's list," said the inventor yesterday, "is a steel maker's list. Every man has his own particular list. Taft's would be different from mine."

"In yours would Carnegie be mentioned?" he was directly asked.

"Carnegie," he explained, "is an exponent of rapid Americanism. He deals in great outputs. He has brought steel making to high grade—perhaps not in quality but in output. If a man can take a 500 ton machine and get 1600 tons out of it, it is a great act."

"Off hand, whom would you name as the greatest men?" was queried.

"Do colleges help a man in the mechanical arts?" asked a new graduate.

"Oh," remarked Edison, "college education is all right for lawyers and literary persons, I think, but not for engineers. College training is not mind training," he declared.

"Many people send their sons to college for social reasons, you know—that is, for the relationship and acquaintances he will pick up."

Finally, a question about "peace with a capital P" was shot at him and he shot back, the report of it echoing to the naval officers and men who had been his guests.

The Los Angeles Election.

The result of the Los Angeles municipal election will give profound satisfaction throughout the State. While the defeat of Job Harriman was regarded as a foregone conclusion, the tremendous majority cast against the Socialist ticket shows how firmly grounded the social and political order in Los Angeles is. The election is a victory for order, unity and progress. That is what the enormous majority given to Mayor Alexander means.

The defeat of Job Harriman is the culmination of a series of events each of which is a subject for public gratulation. First was the election of James Rolph Jr. for Mayor of San Francisco, and along with him an exceptionally fine body of men for Supervisors. Class government and a source of friction were eliminated by this result and the city given a better standing abroad. Rolph's election was accepted as a victory for order, unity and progress. It brought to a close an era of factionalism and provided the machinery, backed by responsible public opinion, for a coherent, high-minded, progressive administration having no object to serve other than the promotion of the city's welfare and the rescue of its good name from unjust opprobrium and the muckraking activities of sensation mongers.

In gratifying sequence came the denouement in the McNamara case, a denouement that vindicated the truth and the law, and gave renewed assurance that our system of administering justice has not broken down and is still in efficient operation.

The overwhelming defeat of Job Harriman followed as a natural consequence. It has cleared the political atmosphere and will give enterprise fresh heart and confidence. It will stimulate business activity all over the State. Capital will find California a more inviting field for investment as a result; labor will find a larger field of employment, and industry be placed on a more stable and enduring basis. The public has given itself a vote of confidence and administered a rebuke to agitation and unrest.

Harriman represented the forces of disorder and discontent. His connection with the McNamara case indicated a tendency that called for emphatic condemnation. His candidacy and the grounds upon which it was urged were symptoms that demanded and received drastic treatment. Public opinion rose in defense of the law and the established order, in defense also of business stability and industrial prosperity and civic development.

It was well done. Los Angeles will take no backward step and the march of progress will not be turned aside or thrown into confusion. The future may now be faced with hope and confidence, and with a calm assurance that the people are at bottom sane of mind and sound of heart.

Wherever good roads are built land values increase. Good reason why. The cost of marketing produce is decreased. All the farm hauling is done at less expense; there is less wear and tear on vehicles, and the country is made more attractive. People with means seek out sites for country homes in localities where the highways and schools are good. A variety of impulses therefore cause land values to enhance.

President Taft's Clear, Straight Talk.

President Taft's message is a clear exposition of the trust situation; it also unmistakably discloses the President's attitude toward the Sherman anti-trust law and what his purposes are relative to that statute. A franker or more illuminating document was never sent from the White House to the Capitol.

First and foremost, the President announces his belief that obedience to the law will not injure or unjustly burden any honestly conducted business. Then he explains that the object of the law is to prevent monopoly and hold open the door of opportunity. He thinks the law in its present form will fairly accomplish this result. Hence he is opposed to repealing or amending the anti-trust statute.

Again, the President announces that he knows of no way to enforce a law other than to prosecute all who violate it. He does not subscribe to his predecessor's theory that "administrative treatment" and not lawsuits is the remedy for trust evils. The absorption by the Steel Trust of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company is an example of administrative treatment that William H. Taft is not inclined to follow. It has not struck the country as an evidence that the Sherman law was being enforced or that the evils of trust monopoly were put down. Nor is it a convincing proof that the passage of the Sherman Act was a mistake or that the law should be repealed.

President Taft's message will not encourage the trusts to contribute to a campaign fund for his re-election. They subscribed quite cheerfully to Colonel Roosevelt's campaign fund, and the Steel Trust at least has no reason to believe that it made a mistake. It was not prosecuted, but given a dose of administrative treatment that made the country sick even if it did relieve Wall street of a severe attack of financial congestion.

In short, the President says the Sherman Act is a good law intended to accomplish a good purpose, and that he intends to enforce it, notwithstanding Colonel Roosevelt's objection to lawsuits. Moreover, he says the courts have interpreted the law fairly and intelligently, and by doing so have made it effective to accomplish the results which it was enacted to achieve. The President says the law is not too drastic in its provisions nor unjust in its purpose, and he dismisses with a few words of common sense comment the plea that the big business men cannot tell whether they are violating the law or not. He says they know when they are combining to stifle and break down competition and establish monopoly that they are violating the law. That is what you must do, he says to them: otherwise you are all right.

The message is a firm, straight heart-to-heart talk with the general public and the business interests which is instructive in its exposition of a vexed question and a convincing proof of the President's intention to do the right thing so far as lies within his power.

"If you want to get the best out of your turkey, stuff him with chestnuts," says the Fresno Mirror. This is the first intimation we have had that the editor of the Mirror thinks the editorials of the Fresno Republican are good to eat.

"How about the poor consumer?" asks the Charleston News and Courier. He is doing quite well, thank you. The consumer is also a producer, as a rule, and while high prices catch him on one side they bring grist to his mill on the other. The mistake the Charleston paper makes is in assuming that consumers are in a class by themselves. Never was a greater mistake made. Producers consume and consumers produce; the man who makes overalls buys his butter and eggs from men who buy his overalls. Industry and commerce combine to form one vast web of production and consumption for the interchange of commodities. The ultimate consumer is a myth, a figment of the imagination, a political bogie. He does not exist. Every person is a consumer, and the vast majority of persons engaged in trade or industry are really producers; if they are not actually producing they are facilitating the interchange of products.

Puzzle Picture: Why Is Dad So Popular?

Had Job Harriman been elected Mayor of Los Angeles a good deal of the moral effect of the pleas of guilty entered by the McNamaras would have been lost. People abroad would have received the impression that a considerable element of Los Angeles' population actually sympathized with crime and disorder. Such an impression would have been wrong and unjust, but the State would have suffered from it nevertheless. Fortunately it will not have to be combatted.

The McNamara Defense Fund.

There is no legitimate ground for criticizing the contributions to the McNamara defense fund made by the labor organizations throughout the country unless it can be shown that the money was contributed with the knowledge and intent that it was to be used corruptly. No such showing has been made—no attempt has been made to show it. Even if some of it was used corruptly, the donors are not to be blamed unless they had knowledge of the corruption and sanctioned it.

Ostensibly the money was contributed to assist the McNamaras in getting a fair trial. This purpose was as lawful as moral and justifiable as the purpose of the private fund contributed to aid the prosecution. Whether guilty or innocent the McNamaras were entitled to a fair trial. The law expressly guarantees every person charged with crime a fair trial, and justifies defendants in employing the same means in their defense that are employed in their prosecution. So the money contributed to the McNamara defense fund was given for a perfectly lawful purpose.

Because the McNamaras pleaded guilty some people have jumped to the conclusion that the defense fund is therefore admitted to be tainted with immorality if not illegality. Nothing of the kind. A good motive is always to be presumed until a bad one is shown. Money for the defense fund was contributed on the presumption that the defendants were innocent. It was given for a purpose entirely lawful. Moreover, it was perfectly natural for the labor unions to stand in defense of their accused members till their guilt was established. The law presumes that relatives and friends of accused persons will do that in all cases.

The Los Angeles election is another boost for the Panama-Pacific Exposition; also for the whole State of California.

Judge Bordwell calls Lincoln Steffens an anarchist, but proves him to be only a liar.

VOCABULARY OF A CHILD

"I believe that most parents greatly underestimate the number of words that are used by their children," writes Professor G. M. Whipple in the American Magazine. "The only way to get a child's speaking vocabulary is to go after it with pencil and paper and religiously to set down his words, one by one, not for a day or for several days, but for several weeks. When during the course of a dinner-table conversation I asked how many words an ordinary, everyday 3-year-old boy could use, the first of my friends guessed 150 words; his estimate was greeted with derision by the other, who declared:

"Oh, pshaw! Fifty words would cover the vocabulary of the brightest 3-year-old you ever knew!"

Needless to add that my assertion that my own youngster at that age actually used by count, 1771 different words was the occasion of polite incredulity and jocose commiseration of the fond but dubious parent.

The present vocabulary was assembled in the following manner: We first prepared 26 blank sheets, one for each letter, and for 10 days prior to his third birthday recorded words as fast as we heard them used. We next added those words which we knew had been used previously, but which had not chance to appear during this record. In each instance we framed up conversations that would involve the use by R. of the word in question in order to make sure that the word was still known and could be properly used.

"Finally we turned to the several published vocabularies of children and found a large number of words that had not been recorded by either of the first two methods; these were similarly tested before they were included.

"Even after all these devices had been exhausted, we doubtless missed a number of words, as several terms appeared during the next few weeks which were thought to be third-year terms, so that the 1771 words which are recorded represent a minimal vocabulary, and the actual number of words known and used by R. prior to his third birthday is probably in the neighborhood of 1800."

NOVELS AND PLAYS

The industry of turning successful plays into novels continues to flourish. Mr. Louis N. Parker's "Pomander Walk" being at the moment of writing the latest addition to the list. He has done well in attending to the transformation himself, a delicate task that might easily have led to failure in less skilled and sympathetic hands. It would be interesting to trace this more or less literary practice to its origins. Certain it is that it is far younger than the reverse process of turning novels into plays. One difference is to be observed in comparing the two methods. Whereas successful plays are turned into novels, there are many instances on record of unsuccessful novels that have been turned into triumphant plays. Schiller's "Robbers," for instance, which is perhaps the most famous example of this form of converting defeat into victory.

Both the popular novel and the popular play have served, still another purpose, that of operatic composer. Melhac based a brilliant libretto on Merleme's "Carmen" for Bizet; Scott's "Bride of Lammermoor" became Donizetti's "Lucia"; Puccini set Murger's "Scenes de la Vie de Boheme" to music; "Manon Lescaut," the "Tales of Hoffmann" and "Thais" may be added as examples of the contributions of fictions to the lyric stage. The drama has furnished opera with "The Barber of Seville," "Figaro," "Faust," "Ernani," "Rigoletto," "Tosca" and "Fedora," not to mention several of Shakespeare's plays and several others.

Occasionally the novel has been made to do triple service. "Camille," for instance, which began as fiction, continued its prosperous career as a play, and added to its popularity by tempting Verdi to compose "La Traviata." It is likely that the play, which has already survived the book, will also survive the opera. "Madame Butterfly" is another instance of triple service and success. "Scientific management," it appears, was known and practiced in the world of arts long before it came to be talked about in the world of business.—New York Tribune.

DECLINE OF SHORT STORY

H. G. Wells, English author, is rather of the opinion that the short story is degenerating. He points out that the bubbling springs of thought that developed in himself and contemporaries an inexhaustible supply of good manuscripts seem to have gone dry.

There may be in this complaint some of the boredom of success. The man who has written for many years and has arrived at the pinnacle of personal success is apt to draw a bit upon his own experiences in passing judgment upon the whole world.

On the other hand, there is a apparent that the short story, both in the United States and in England, is falling too much into wooden and stereotyped form. There is too little of inspiration and too much of craftsmanship. The product is well-tooled, but it is not magic with the inspiration of a master's individual genius.

Glance through the pages of any half-dozen magazines of the day—the reader cannot but be impressed with the deadly sameness of them. Almost before reading the first hundred words one is aware of what the conclusion will be.

A few of the minor characters may land in unexpected situations, but the hero and heroine will go through a devilish lot of impossible adventures in order that they may realize that they are "in love" and in order that the author may stretch his imagination and the reader's patience to the utmost in extricating them.

The principle of the thing is to sell more and still more copies of the magazine, not to produce a high class of material that will educate even while it interests. From this practice has come the half-baked "action" story, written by infantile minds for the delectation of immaturity. Its chief value is its unreality, and instead of the reader being strengthened by contact with a strong, serious adult mind, he or she is fed a verbal pap that neither broadens nor elevates.—Seattle Times.

POETRY BRIDGES 40 YEARS' GAP

'TRAIN DE LUXE' IS FLYING EAST

Assemblymen Reciting Verse
Learn That They Were
Teacher and Pupil.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 6.—A forgotten line of poetry bridged a gulf of 40 years today and as the result of a moment's sentimental reminiscence about the falling leaves, Assemblymen D. W. Mott of Ventura and Edward J. Lynch of Sacramento discovered that the former wielded the birch over Lynch in Herkimer, N. Y., during Lynch's early boyhood.

The two were walking under the trees arm in arm.

"It is odd how an early sentiment lasts through life," said Lynch. "I was taught by an old teacher to love the autumn leaves. He gave me a verse:

"The leaves that in the autumn days

Find death within the mold;

In Nature's deep, unfathomed ways—"

"I can't remember the last line."

Mott had stepped back and was looking at Lynch closely.

"Were you ever in Herkimer, N. Y.?" he asked.

"Yes."

"Then I can give you the last line of that poem."

"I made you write it on the board

100 times and I see you haven't learned it yet."

The road is to cost $1,000,000 and will be completed during the coming spring. It is to run to the Big Creek site of the San Joaquin Light and Power Company, where large hydroelectric construction is being carried on.

Engineers have been at work on the road for about three weeks, but the matter was kept quiet until today, when official announcement was made by A. G. Wishard, local manager of the Huntington Interests.

MANY AVIATORS HAVE SIGNED UP FOR INTERNATIONAL MEET

AVIATOR COOKE and EARL COOPER in his fast Stutz racer at the start of their novel three-mile race last Sunday. The motor car proved too speedy for the aeroplane, Cooper winning with ease.

An aviation meet of international character, rivaling in importance and exceeding in number of flyers the first bird meet held in San Francisco last January, is now planned for the coming Sunday at the motordrome. Four aviators have already entered and present indications are that at least as many more will make an appearance in competition for the immense sum of money to be offered as prizes in the various feats which are scheduled.

The meet will be the first of an open character which has ever been held in the West. For each feature planned a sum of goodly proportions has been hung up, and it is these prizes the different bird men will strive to capture. The whole affair as now planned has been worked up from what was originally intended to be an exhibition in which one or two aviators were to appear. The success of last Sunday's meet has led to the motordrome management to make strenuous efforts to bring here the best men now in this section of the country.

Hangars are being constructed and before the end of the week phylons, used in the measurement of aerial course will have been erected.

The machines thus far entered are Blériot type monoplane, which Frank Bryant will handle, a Curtiss type biplane to be used by Weldon Cooke, a German, with Roy Francis as pilot, and a Wright racing machine, the latter to be manipulated by Didier Masson.

Rene Simon, one of the Moisant aviators, holder of the world's one-mile speed record around a mile track and possessor of numerous other marks such as speed records for various distances in Italy, Austria and Germany, is now en route to this city and is due on Saturday morning as some of the other prominent air pilots, Simon is in a class by himself.

At the Havre-Trouville International meet he captured the duration prize, having to his credit the wonderful time of remaining in the air for 1½ hours and 56 minutes. In this period he traveled a distance of 1400 kilometers (about 860 miles). The time in the air was not continued, but the test was accomplished in two days of the meet. He has flown over the cities of Havre, Madrid, Barcelona, Pescara, Bourdeaux, Paris, Richmond (twice), Chattanooga, Memphis, Tupelo, New Orleans, Dallas, Oklahoma City, Fort Worth, Temple and San Antonio. Simon was the first man to herd cattle in an aeroplane and was the first aviator to prove the utility of an aeroplane as a scouting machine.

Masson will again make a number of flights.

The five probable entrants to date are: Simon, Masson, Bryant, Francis and Cooke. Before the end of the week at least three more will have pitched camp at the motordrome.

Aviator Francis, a San Franciscan boy, who had been prominent in late because of sensational aerial exhibitions, Didier Masson and Weldon Cooke, who performed so memorably last Sunday at the motordrome, have entered and they are to make a number of flights on the coming Sunday at the Elmhurst track.

In the second program the crowds will have an opportunity to witness the maneuvers of at least three men flying at the same time, all three attempting different feats and manipulating their biplanes in such a manner as to hold public interest every moment they are aloft.

Francis, like Cooke, is one of the new comers in the field of aviation; still he is one of the few in a thousand who have made a success of his trials. His machine, a self-made one, is considered superior in many respects to either the Curtiss or Wright machines. Many original ideas have been successfully brought out in it, one of which is a two-speed arrangement, enabling him to start without the assistance of helpers or mechanics. He never allows his mechanics to follow him about the field for the purpose of aiding in the anchoring or turning of his aeroplane.

On Thanksgiving day he appeared in several exhibitions at San Jose, drew an immense crowd to witness his performance, and thrilled the spectators attending his flights with a number of sensational feats, such as the carrying of passengers and the demonstration of new volplaning stunts. This part of his program in the Garden City will be repeated here.

Cooke, the Oakland boy, made a success in his first appearance, and on Sunday a chance will be afforded him to compare his skill with that of Francis.

WILSON DECLARES S. P. PLACES BAN ON 'MY DEAR SIRS'

Governor Says He Sought the Carnegie Fund for Sake of Family.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—The following statement was made by Governor Wilson of New Jersey last night regarding his application for the benefits of the Carnegie fund:

"The Carnegie foundation for the advancement of teaching is not a plan for old-age pensions, but for granting retiring allowances on the ground of length and quality of service. Before I was elected governor of New Jersey, when I had just entered the uncertain field of politics, I applied to the foundation for a retiring allowance, to which I understood myself to be entitled under the rules adopted by the trustees.

"I have no private means to depend upon. A man who goes into politics bound by principles of honor puts his family and dependents in a dependent position for support at the mercy of an inconstant turn of the wheel of fortune, and I felt entirely justified in seeking to provide against such risks, particularly when I was applying for what I supposed myself to be entitled to by right of long service as a teacher under the rules of the foundation."

NEW RAILROAD LAYS TRACKS IN STOCKTON

STOCKTON, Dec. 6.—Track laying which began yesterday on Mineo avenue marks the entry into this city of the Stockton Terminal and Eastern Railway company, which was organized about two years ago for the further development of Eastern San Joaquin county. The railroad is headed by M. J. Gardner of this city and is well financed.

Up to a year ago, when the road was completed from the suburbs north to the town of Linden, a distance of about twelve miles, the farmers on the East Side were put to a great inconvenience in moving their crops. As soon as the track was laid this condition was relieved by the company's putting on automobile cars. Recently locomotives and freight cars were put on.

WANTS TO AMEND IRRIGATION ACT

Fowler Would Include Reclamation of Swamp Lands.

CHICAGO, Dec. 6.—Pros. Benjamin A. Fowler speaking at opening of the nineteenth national irrigation congress here, advocated amendments to the national irrigation act and urged the reclamation of swamp lands as two of the most important matters for discussion by the congress.

"More than nine years have passed since the national irrigation act became a law and the reclamation service was organized," said President Fowler in taking up the subject of the proposed amendments. "As anticipated by its friends, the act has in practice demonstrated some weaknesses, which could not be foreseen but ought now to be corrected.

"The time limit of ten years in which to return to the government in equal annual payments the cost of construction of a project is now recognized as too short, and the necessity of an extension is admitted.

"Theoretically, irrigated lands under any government project ought to furnish the best of security for conservative mortgage loans at low interest. But outside capital hesitates to offer itself for such loans because in case of foreclosure, the act operates against the mortgages and protects him as a non-resident from securing title. This ought to be remedied in the interest of both sides."

"Experience has shown that when any project is more than half completed, acreage property has so appreciated in value that the opportunity for the speculator as such or the large capitalist has gone forever, and the time has come when the owner should no longer be required to live on these lands."

RECLAIMING SWAMPS.

Regarding the reclamation of swamp lands, President Fowler said in part:

"In addition to the land area available for reclamation through irrigation, there are about eighty million acres of swamp and overflow lands not now inhabitable but susceptible to drainage."

Though the wet lands are mostly along the Gulf and Atlantic slopes, with considerable areas in Pacific states, they are distributed throughout every state. Generally of great fertility, they grow rice. Generally sustain a population of fifty millions of people. While not yet settled or cultivated, except in a small way, most of the wet lands have been ceded to states and have passed into private ownership. By far the greater portion of the area, (for example, in the lower Mississippi region,) is so located that drainage projects would necessarily affect several states, so that the drainage problem is essentially interstate, involving federal action with that of the states.

NEED OF EXTENSION:

"It is clear that one of the great needs is the extension of reclamation over the wet lands, and it is important that the action be taken by state legislatures and congress in co-operation with private action with that of the states.

CLOSED SHOP TALK DECLARED FALSE

President of Carmen's Unions
Denies Making Statement
About Key Route.

Statements concerning the forcing of a closed shop on the Oakland Traction and Key Route companies by its employees who are members of Local No. 12, Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America, purported to have been made by some man impersonating him to representatives of the local press. The identity of the man who posed as Smart has not been learned, and efforts are being made to solve the mystery.

"I have absolutely no comment to make on the statements issued by the man who used my name," said President Smart when seen in his office this morning at the locia's headquarters. "I did not issue the statements nor do I care to say anything in the matter."

DISSENSE ALLEGED.

The statements appearing in the local and San Francisco press over the name of Smart were published last Wednesday in connection with a notice of a smoker which the members of the local were giving at their headquarter, 2712 Twelfth street, on Tuesday, November 28. They were to the effect that there was also dissatisfaction among many members of the union over the number of non-union men employed by the two companies. This dissatisfaction, it was declared, would make itself felt on March 1, next, when it was believed the local would attempt to force through a closed shop with the company as one of the terms of the new agreement to be entered into between company and employees. The Informer declared that it was hoped the company would receive the proposition favorably without the necessity of a strike.

It now appears that Smart was away from headquarters at the time the statements were issued and the man who sat at Smart's desk and issued the interview was an imposter. The Informer questioned telephone to the various newspaper offices, saying he was Smart and had information to give out in connection with the smoker and future actions of the local. The quoted interview extensively published was the result.

ABSENT FROM BUILDING.

According to the real Smart, he was absent from the building at the time the reporters called, and as his office is open to any member of the local, it was an easy matter for the imposter to gain entrance.

When asked if he had any statement to make as to what might have prompted the issuance of a false statement, Smart declared that he had absolutely nothing to say. He declared that the use of his name by another for the issuance of statements had caused trouble and misapprehension, and that he would say nothing more to the matter.

An election of officers for the local will be held within a few weeks, and it is understood that there is at present a difference of sentiment among the members of the closed shop which may be brought to a head at that time.

SUE BROTHER TO SET ASIDE DEEDS

James F. Curran Charged With Keeping Legal Transaction Secret.

A suit was instituted this forenoon in the superior court by Lizzie J. Snyder and Mary M. Cleary against James F. Curran, their brother, to set aside deeds to four valuable lots in West Oakland given to him by their mother, Rose Curran, who died late November 24.

The sisters allege that their mother deeded the property to Curran in August, 1908, when she was weak in mind and body and incapable of performing any lawful business transaction, and that Curran withheld the deeds and kept the transaction a secret until after their mother's death.

The sisters allege connivance and fraud, force and violence on the part of Curran to compel Mrs. Curran to deed them the property, and that by so doing he cheated them out of their rightful share in their mother's estate.

WESTERN UNION EXTENDS NEW SERVICE TO CABLE

The night and day letters have proved such a great success and have been so thoroughly appreciated by the telegraphing public that the Western Union Telegraph company has decided to extend this service, in a measure, to its cable lines, believing that the innovation will meet with immediate success.

Commencing January 1, week-end cables written in will be accepted at any hour at any Western Union office to be forwarded to the cable terminus at New York or Boston by mail or telegraph.

The tariff for the cable transmission of cable letters will be $1.50 for 20 words with 30 cents added for each additional five words and for the week-end letters $1.50 for 30 words with 30 cents added for each additional five words.

These rates cover the transmission between New York and Boston and London and Liverpool.

They include delivery at those points and postage where any is imposed.

RUNAWAY HALTS SILVERA FUNERAL

Women Mourners and Undertaker in Danger at San Leandro.

SAN LEANDRO, Dec. 6.—A requiem high mass was celebrated at St. Leander's church this morning for the repose of the soul of the late Joaquin Francis Silvera, who died at his home on Joaquin avenue last Monday. The mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Abrantes, assistant pastor of St. Leander's. The ceremonies were attended by members of the U. P. E. C. union ranks and the I. D. E. S. society, of which organizations Silvera was a member.

Many floral offerings from friends and acquaintances covered the bier. The services were held in the Roman Catholic cemetery in Hayward.

Considerable excitement was created when a team in the funeral procession took flight and ran for twelve blocks, every moment threatening to upset the vehicle, in which were riding Undertaker R. L. Cyar and two women mourners, whose names could not be ascertained. The animals were finally brought to a standstill without any damage being done.

FOUR-MASTER BRINGS TALE OF STORM AT SEA

Schooner Alpena Comes to Port After Buffeting Wind and Waves

Bringing a tale of heavy gales and high running seas, the four-masted schooner Alpena, Captain Niclson, came in under tow by the tug Pilot and tied up to the Oakland Dock and Warehouse Company's wharf where she is discharging 1500 tons of coal for J. J. Moore & Co. The little vessel is ninety-nine days out from Newcastle, N. S. W., during which time she was the center of a number of little storms, having been acted out by the cabin boy, Little Morgan, and the Japanese cook, Muri.

About six months ago, Morgan joined the sailing craft as cabin boy and because he was well liked, won soon became a friend of everybody on board except the little Japanese cook. From the minute these two set eyes on the other it could be seen that little love would be lost between them. When a few days out from Newcastle, the cook began to tease the boy, determined to put an end to him. Taking a cleaver, the Oriental went after the husky little jockey with a vengeance.

TAKES CLEAVER AWAY.

Morgan very easily took the cleaver away from the cook and then unlimbered his broadsword. The disengaged Oriental fled himself to his pots and pans, vowing dire vengeance. A few days later the two again mixed it with the same result as the first time. This time, however, Captain Niclson learned of the happenings and declared that the next indulgence in any war play would be put in iron.

According to the captain and crew the passage was one of the roughest ever made. The Alpena was driven by a gale 50 miles west of the coast, ran into a series of fierce southwest gales which carried away a part of her rigging and caused her to heave to for a number of hours while the damage was being repaired. When a few miles off the coast, the schooner was struck by a herd of luck. This time instead of being buffeted by heavy seas and winds she lay becalmed for three days, which the captain estimated was worse than the fiercest of gales.

STEAMER IN PORT.

With the arrival of the steamer and officers, the big Pacific Coast freight and passenger liner Senator came in and tied up at Long wharf this morning. The vessel is now in charge of Captain Paulsen, a well known and popular skipper of this coast who by his skill and seamanship rose from a cabin boy to captain of the Senator.

He is one of the largest liners plying the Pacific. The Senator was formerly owned by the New Brunswick company which had a fleet of steamers. The Senator will now take the Mexican run. She is at

HUSHED ROMANCE IS REVEALED IN N.Y. COURTROOM

Abused Ward Said to Be the Daughter of Former S. F. Society Woman.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Mrs. Estherine Virginia Evers, the stately wife of a wealthy furniture dealer, was committed to the Tombs yesterday after pleading guilty to horse whipping her 11-year-old ward, Alice Elizabeth Randolph. Witnesses testified to her extreme cruelty, saying there was no provocation.

It had been reported that the child's father was a naval officer. In court Mrs. Evers refused to reveal the child's paternity, but afterward her lawyer, Edward Holling, said:

"I may as well tell what I know. The child is the daughter of Miss Alice Elizabeth Wilson of San Francisco, a woman of social standing at one time in that city. The mother died a few weeks after the birth of the baby. Calling Mrs. Evers to the sickroom and urging her, for old friendship's sake, to care for the little one, Miss Wilson said the father was John Edmund Randolph, absent from San Francisco at that time and never seen by my client. Mrs. Evers, in the kindness of her heart, took the child and reared it as best she could. She was then on the Pacific Coast visiting relatives."

Superintendent Walsh of the Children's society said last night:

"An investigator is now in Washington to ascertain the identity of the father of the child."

Walsh said that George W. Gaze, an attorney, had information that there had been litigation over certain valuable bonds supposed to belong to the girl.

Fires On Robber

BAKERSFIELD, Dec. 6.—In his third attempt within an hour to gain an entrance to the Powell residence on Baker street by way of various windows, a mysterious intruder met with a surprise. In the shape of a volley of three revolver shots fired by Miss Eva Powell, a plucky girl of twenty years. She and a younger sister, Bessie, were the only members of the family in the house at the time.

That all three shots found their mark was proved by the fact that shortly afterward Dr. F. J. Crease, in ignorance of the attempted burglary, dressed two minor scalp wounds and set a broken bone under the left eye and a fractured nose for a stranger whose description tallied with that of the persistent would-be robber. After having his injuries attended to the stranger disappeared and the police are now searching for him.

LONDON ALARMED OVER THE KING'S SAFETY

ANXIETY FELT OVER DURBAR CEREMONY

Many Persons Think the Royal Couple's Visit to India Was Inadvisable.

Emperor and Empress Spend $200,000 for Presents for Indian Subjects.

LONDON. Dec. 6.—Much anxiety is felt in official circles tonight over the coming Durbar ceremonies. Before the King left England there were many persons in whose opinion his visit to India did not seem advisable because of the many outrages that have occurred recently in that country. This feeling has been revived by news of fires in Delhi, although there is no proof of the outbreak being of incendiary origin.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES.

DELHI, India, Dec. 6.—Fires of mysterious origin that have occurred during the last few days have greatly alarmed the officials responsible for the safety of the royal visitors during the Durbar ceremonies which will commence tomorrow and on the eve of the coronation it is momentarily feared that some disaster will mar the occasion.

Particularly have the fires been confined to parts of the Durbar camp that will be visited by their majesties. Yesterday the magnificent pavilion in which the Emperor-King was to be burned to the ground. With it was consumed valuable hangings and fixtures. The wonderful silver columns were total wrecks. The fire was the second of the series.

Again today flames destroyed a large store on the banks of the river Jumna. The building was filled with fireworks which were largely used in the pyrotechnic displays of the festival. In every large city vast sums will be expended on fireworks, which will be the most elaborate ever seen in any country.

When the fire occurred there was a rehearsal in progress of the King's state entry, and those taking the parts were thrown into a panic. In spite of vigilance on part of the authorities they have been unable to discover the source of the disasters, the numerous blazes have been laid by accident is not believed, and that they may be part of an elaborate plot that has been clinched to more terrible dead is feared by those who know the native best. Unrest throughout the empire of recent times has contributed to the concern of the officials.

AWAY ROYAL COUPLE.

DELHI, India, Dec. 6.—The elaborate ceremonies incident to the investiture of King George and Queen Mary as Emperor and Empress of India will begin here tomorrow with the arrival of their majesties from Bombay. The royal couple will be met at the railroad station by Lord and Lady Hardinge, 150 Indian princes and their gorgeous retinues and a royal guard of soldiers. They will be escorted to a pavilion inside the fort, where they will be formally presented to the native princes.

Following the procedure their majesties will be taken to their quarters on the plain of Delhi. The route will be lined by thousands of school children, who will strew flowers in the King's path.

The actual ceremonies will begin tomorrow with the state entry and reception of the Indian chiefs and will continue to December 16. In these 10 days will be crowded an endless round of receptions, reviews and ceremonies, on a scale of unequalled magnificence. These will be followed by a hunting expedition which will be conducted by the native princes with the king as a guest. It is estimated that $10,000,000 have been spent in decorations, the mobilization of troops and the preparation of the royal encampment.

The great celebration will reach its height December 12, when the King and Queen are formally invested with the titles of Emperor and Empress of India.

TO CARRY PROCLAMATION.

This ceremony will be witnessed by 50,000 people, while over 200,000,000 will hear the coronation proclamation that will re-echo in every province and village in India through the special representatives delegated to make the instrument known to the populace.

The coronation will take place at midday, in two great arenas in the center of the encampment. The King will adjust the crown himself, giving the impression to his Indian subjects that no living man is worthy of carrying out this act.

After the ceremony he will be hailed by the guests as Delhi-Kebashah for the first time in Indian history. The royal couple will then receive the homage of the governors, chiefs and officials.

Incident to the coronation of their majesties will be the first public appearance of the Indian crown. It was decided to leave the royal crown of England in the Tower of London and a new crown was especially constructed for the Indian Durbar. This crown has not been seen by any save those in the royal family and the workmen engaged in constructing the

SECRET SERVICE ACTIVE.

The famine and widespread discontent in India have necessitated a most rigid police system to guard against any possible harm to their majesties during their stay at Delhi. Five thousand police and secret service men have been detailed to special duty. Natives and all suspicious persons are being watched closely and the streets are crowded with the constabulary.

Second only to the advent of their majesties and their coronation on December 12 is the interest displayed in the tent city lies just west of the famous Ridge and surrounds the Ridge. The camp is five miles square and contains every convenience of a modern city. There is a cab service, drainage system, over 12 miles of railroad, 31 postoffices and 10 telegraph offices. Here the King and Queen will occupy two great tents till after the ceremonies.

During the ceremonies over a quarter of a million people will be under canvas at the encampment grounds, which cover an area of over 25 square miles. Four divisions of infantry and two divisions of cavalry have been mobilized for the Durbar and 90,000 soldiers are now in Delhi. Besides, the esports of the native princes.

Over a quarter of a million dollars will be exploded in fireworks at the nightly demonstrations. At Delhi the central city will be portrayed in fire at a cost for the single piece of $15,000. Altogether the Delhi fireworks will cost over $100,000. In Rangoon, Cawnpore, Bombay and Calcutta $150,000 will be devoted to this form of entertainment.

MILLIONS ON DISPLAY.

Their majesties have brought with them over $1,000,000 worth of jewels and nearly $200,000 worth of gifts for the Indian princes, soldiers, officials, children and the entertainment of the poor of India. Twenty-four solid silver trumpets, costing $100 each, will be used to announce the reading of the Stan-

EIGHT YEARS METED OUT TO MOORE

The Spiritualistic Leader Must Serve Long Sentence in San Quentin.

"Have More Respect for Hold-up Man," Court Tells Prisoner.

Eight years in the penitentiary at San Quentin was the sentence imposed this forenoon in the criminal department of the Superior Court by Judge William S. Wells upon H. Royer Sinclair Moore, the psychic and spiritualistic medium who was recently convicted of robbing Walter Bentzen, an electric car motorman, of $700 by trick and device. Judgment had denied defendant's motion, through Attorney George J. McDonough, for a new trial and to refer the case to the probation officer, and Moore had made an impassioned appeal in his own behalf for judicial clemency.

The boys showed up well under the cross-fire of questions from Attorney Hynes for the school board and Attorney Harmon Bell and Judge F. E. Ogden, occasionally having lapses of memory when the questions became so intricate that the high school youths were in doubt as to what strange things they might be admitting, no matter which way they answered.

The taking of testimony, which required a two-day session of the board of education, closed last night, and this afternoon the board met to decide the fate of the boys who have admitted they were members of the Good Enough Klub.

Should the boys suffer suspension or expulsion from the school, it is proposed that the committee will take it into the courts.

It is thought, however, that some leniency will be shown, as it became apparent that while the boys may have been some evasion of the spirit of the regulations, the boys believed that in organizing their club they were keeping within the letter of the law and of their pledges to the school board.

PRINCIPLE INVOLVED.

While it is recognized by educators that there is a principle involved in this high school fraternity matter of some import, the proceedings of the day bore something of a judicial nature.

Sixteen directors elected as representative citizens of a big city to handle the training of the young, four learned attorneys, a superintendent of schools and a high school principal have spent two days in the examination of a group of youths as to whether these boys have been guilty of some strangely evanescent violation of the school rules. The boys were summoned before them one at a time, and their answers twisted and turned and examined to find contradictions among them and to discover the vestiges of evil doing. The boys testified freely and of their own free will, and the whole affair was a strong mixture of procedure, inquisition and informality.

Some life was lent the occasion by the occasional clashes among the attorneys. These were mainly between Deputy District Attorney Hynes and Attorney Harmon Bell. When Joseph Bell, son of the attorney, was being examined, comment was made upon the direct and frank responses of the boy by one of the directors, and Attorney Bell was cognizant of the fact.

"I suppose you will have more brains than his father," responded Bell.

"That would be going a long way," returned Hynes.

"Obliged for the compliment, and I'll pass a bouquet your way in a minute or two," said Bell.

"Oh, all things are possible," came Bell's voice with a rising inflection that left its sting.

ANOTHER CLASH.

Again came the clash when Hynes was attempting to have the boys testify that they had entered into some sort of esoteric understanding that they would not join any other fraternity than the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity, and that this constituted a violation of the code of the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity.

Some life was lent the occasion by the occasional clashes among the attorneys. These were mainly between Deputy District Attorney Hynes and Attorney Harmon Bell. When Joseph Bell, son of the attorney, was being examined, comment was made upon the direct and frank responses of the boy by one of the directors, and Attorney Bell was cognizant of the fact.

PAST AN OPEN BOOK.

He told Judge Wells that his past life was an open book, and that aside from his being arrested once in Los Angeles for practicing his profession without a license, which charge was afterwards dismissed, he had never been in any conflict with the law.

Moore told the court that he was an ordained spiritualist minister. He said he realized that he was the exponent of very unpopular religious heresy, which operated against him in his defense at his trial, and he also pleaded that although he was ready at the beginning of his trial to establish a complete alibi, the switching of the date of the alleged robbery of Bentzen to April 3 instead of March 3, as set forth in the grand jury indictment, prevented him from establishing his innocence as to the date of the larceny.

Moore told the court that all his life he had been guided by the golden rule and that he had never deviated from it so far as he knew. He pleaded further for clemency on the ground that he had two destitute children and a feeble wife to support, saying that his trial had reduced him to the most extreme poverty.

NO JUDICIAL SYMPATHY.

Judge Wells replied to Moore briefly that he found nothing in his case to appeal to judicial sympathy. Attorney McDonough had asked the court to refer the case to the probation officer and Judge Wells said that he denied this motion because he did not think the prisoner was deserving of probation.

"Your crime was the more heinous," said the court to Moore,

"for the reason that in your capacity as an ordained minister of a religious denomination you preyed upon the confidence and credulity of two believers in the doctrine of which you are an exponent. Your crime was deliberately planned and carefully executed. You robbed Bentzen of his hard-earned money. I believe the stories both Bentzen and his wife told upon the witness stand, and I am equally positive that your testimony was perjury from beginning to end."

"I could do," said Hynes, "both in high school and in college."

Judge Ogden, whose son Frank was one of the organizers of the Good Enough Klub, which the board of education claims was "federated" to the Gamma Eta Kappa fraternity, was the next to clash with Hynes. References had been made to various sections of the rules and regulations of the board of education governing the fraternal organization.

"Is it a fact that a student could not join more than one fraternity?" asked Bell.

"It is a fact that a student could not join more than one fraternity?"

"I object to that sort of testimony," broke in Bell. "It is against all rules of fairness to have one of the members of this body appear both as a witness and as a member of the board. The question was raised in connection with a visit from Bruce and Albert Hill, two brothers, who had visited Miss Brown's home, and Hynes had had confidential talk with her concerning the affairs of the club and the controversy with the school board. Questioned by Miss Brown, the boy failed to remember details of the conversation and Miss Brown started to repeat it to refresh their memories.

"Did you not say," queried Miss Brown, "did you not say that when the older men, members of the fraternity, began to talk to you young fellows, to tell you of the glories of the fraternity; of what they, as successful business and professional men, owed to its spirit, that you forgot the school regulations and thought only of the glory of —?"

COAST ATHLETES
WILL HOLD MEETMany Invitations to Participate
Being Sent to the High School Men.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA. Dec. 6.—Invitations to compete in the second annual Pacific Coast Interscholastic meet have been mailed to 250 high schools during the last week.

The first meet of this kind ever held by the University of California took place last spring and attracted about 175 high school athletes, taking part.

At a recent meeting of the Big "C" Society a committee was appointed to have charge of the next meet, consisting of H. G. Gabbert, chairman, R. M. Hill, D. G. Macleod, and J. C. Parker.

The interscholastic committee met yesterday afternoon to discuss arrangements.

It is expected that the meet will be larger this year than last. The committee expects that several of the present schools outside the state will send teams.

THE ENTERTAINMENT ATHLETES.

The committee plans an elaborate entertainment for the high school men while in Berkeley. The athletes will be apportioned to the various fraternities and club houses.

It is expected that the Glee Club show will be held the night before, and if so the athletes will be admitted to the entertainment free of charge. The swimming pool will be open to the men. The athletes planned to have a monster interscholastic bonfire on the night of the meet to close the entertainment.

It has been decided to discontinue the two-mile run, because of the physical strain on the men and their lack of training. The men did not work out satisfactorily last year.

A new entry blank is being made up and a final date at which these must be in will be set at the first of next semi-ester.

The medals for the meet will be the same as last year. They are gold, silver and bronze for first, second and third places and will cost $22 a set.

The committee is considering making the admission to the heats and trials on Friday, and charging admission to the meet on Saturday.

MOTHERS' CLUB OF THE LINCOLN SCHOOL MEETS

ALAMEDA, Dec. 6.—The regular monthly meeting of the Lincoln School Mothers' Club in the assembly hall of the Lincoln school yesterday afternoon was the most enthusiastic and successful ever held by this organization.

The large room was crowded to its capacity by parents and friends of students attending the east end school who expressed themselves in a few words of the good work accomplished by the club.

A feature was the presence of principal and others of the school.

Mrs. H. J. Plotts, president of the club, was in the chair. The Rev. G. L. Meers delivered an address on "The Modern Church."

The girls of the third and fifth grades entertained with folk dancing.

John Nicholson of the eighth grade sang several songs.

OPENING NIGHT OF ELKS'
MINSTRELS IN ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, Dec. 6.—The seat sale for the opening night of the Alameda Elks' minstrel show this evening guarantees a crowded house. In fact, when the curtain rises it is probable that standards will be at a premium for the seats are going so rapidly that but few will be left to be purchased at the door.

The chief numbers of the second part are being kept as surprises for the audience of first nighters.

Among the performers are many amateurs of several years' experience, several of whom have received offers to go on the stage as professionals. A majority of the cast seen with each of the three previous anniversary shows of the lodge and has been thoroughly drilled in stage conduct.

It is predicted that the show will be given in the vini, dash and finished detail of a professional minstrel troupe.

ELECTRIC LIGHT RATES

ALAMEDA, Dec. 6.—A reduction of rates in both electric lighting and power will take place in this city, the first of the year. If the plan of the Board of Electricity are carried out.

A communication to the city council at its regular meeting last night from the utility department advised that the charter application for that electricity rates should be made annually. This inasmuch as the municipal plant was now producing power at a minimum cost a cut in rates could be made, and the municipal plant still be operated at a profit.

The matter was laid over until the next committee meeting of the council, when it is thought probable that the charter department will be ordered to submit a new schedule of rates. Charles Adams, member of the board, was granted a leave of absence of 40 days. The commissioner contemplates a trip to Los Angeles.

testified that there was no special method of taking new members into the club, as they had never had occasion to increase the membership. He declared that Malcolm Hook was one of the members. Questioned by Attorney Hynes as to the relation of the club to the fraternity, the witness stated that no such relationship existed.

Witness stated he had no knowledge of any promise of any member of the club to join the fraternity. As secretary of the club he offered to produce the minutes to bring proof of his statements concerning membership. He denied the suggestion made by Attorney Hynes that the ex-members of the fraternity chummed together. Witness declared he had never contributed a cent to the support of the fraternity after resigning. He stated that there was no special reason for the selection of the name or colors of the club.

OGDEN TESTIFIES.

Frank Ogden, son of Judge Ogden, stated that he was in his fourth year in High School and that he had been a member of the Good Enough Klub since its inception, being the treasurer of the organization. The club was formed, he said, to get this crowd of boys together in a legal manner not offensive to the board of education.

Explaining the fact that he had told the board of education that he was a pledged Gek, Frank Ogden stated that he had made this statement because he had told the Gek he would join their fraternity as soon as he was legally permitted to do so.

Stating that he was on the committee which selected the pin for the club, Frank Ogden stated that the colors had been selected because the boys liked the Gek colors.

Young Ogden declared positively that Malcolm Hook was a member of the club, although he was not sure that Hook had ever paid any dues.

There was nothing secret about the club or its meetings was affirmed by the witness, in accordance with the testimony of other witnesses.

Witness declared that there had been no conversation or talk at meetings of any relationship between members of the Good Enough Klub and the G. E. K. fraternity. He stated there was no avowed intention of limiting the membership to those who would be acceptable to the Gek fraternity. He stated that all the rules of the organization were in the constitution and by-laws, which were open to inspection.

Questioned by Attorney Harmon, Bell, Frank Ogden stated there had never been to his knowledge any violation of the rules of the board of education or of the laws of the state. He stated that he had never knowingly violated any pledge he had signed since entering the club. Answering a query from Director Cook, the witness stated that it was generally known that the club existed, and that the nature of the club was social and literary, and that nobody was excluded, although none had been asked to join.

NEVER CONSIDERED MEMBER.

Malcolm Hook stated he had never considered himself a member of the Good Enough Klub; that though he had enjoyed social times with members of the club, he believed his name was not on the roll and that he had never paid any dues.

Husky Middleweights, Scrappy Feathers and Tearing-In Lightweights Meet at West Oakland Tonight

OVER-BAY PROMOTERS
STILL DICKERING
FOR BOUTS

Kyne Has Nothing to Offer the Fans for This Month; Coffroth Is in Doubt.

Over the bay fight promoters are still on the anxious seat; Billy Kyne with the December permit in his jeans hasn't anything to offer the fans for the month as yet. Jimmy Coffroth too is material for his New Year card, so there are none.

The man with the December permit has been trying to match Grover Hayes with the Brown-Holland bout on December 29, but hasn't had any success as yet. Hayes is putting up some west and the scratch with any of them. Mandot, Hogan, Burns, but the one he most likes, Mandot, doesn't seem to want to meet the scrappy New Orleans lad.

Then Kyne thought maybe he could land Frank Klaus, the Pittsburgh scrapper and Leo Houck as a middleweight card, but it seems that Klaus is tied up with Mel Moffitt of the Oakland Wheelmen to meet the winner of the Brown-Holland bout on New Years Day, so that sort of puts the bunches on that match.

COFFROTH STILL WANTS MC-FARLAND.

On top of all this Jimmy Coffroth hasn't given up the idea of a bout under his supervision on New Years Day, and seeks a light-weight bout on the popular Sunshine card. It all sits and drips to match Ad Wolgast with Packy McFarland on that day, but the sudden illness of the champion put the idea away. Now he is burning up the wires seeking a bout to come west and tackle the Chicago bubble.

Jim wouldn't mind matching Freddie Welsh and Packy, but this much he knows. He would have to work up the much greater fame for the last appearance of those two in the ring before stir up very much of a desire on the part of the fans to see them in action.

WOLGAST TO REMAIN IDLE SOME TIME.

With Wolgast out of the game for at least six months he can't be reckoned a factor in the action. And it is just possible that when he does take up the burdens of scrapping that he will look for something soft and easy like. He would no doubt take on some third rater to test his strength and if it were all in then go after one of the faster fellows.

As for a bout with McFarland, within that time it is almost out of the question but still Wolgast would, the fans think, be willing to box the Chicago man at any old time for Ad thinks just as much of the man as he does of picking.

MC-FARLAND MAY LOSE WELLS.

Pucky's hurried trip back east to box Matt Wells will be wasted, for a wire from the British Isle says that Matt is sick and won't be able to don a fight for several months to come.

At that time it is doubtful whether the match will be fought, whether Wells was sick or not. This talk of Thiby's about an $8500 guarantee is to the mind of the fight follower all soft soap. The game in New York is in such a bustle that one division that has no less than 500 houses there and that but a scheme to get a little advertising on the part of a few fellows who like to see their names in print.

All together it looked like a bluster on the part of Thiby to stimulate the wants of Pucky. McFarland on the Pacific coast.

COCKY O'BRIEN IS CALLED BY DEATH.

James Francis O'Brien, known to the sporting world from San Francisco to New York as "Cocky" O'Brien, died of State Controller NYC. The first was for $10,15 for the period ending Dec. 31, 1910, and the other was for $21,664 for the period ending June 30, 1911.

SAND DIET RUINS HORSE'S DIGESTION

FRESNO, Dec. 6.—According to a report to the board of supervisors by County Veterinary Surgeon Williams, the horses of Fresno county would be healthy enough if they didn't ruin their digestion by eating sand. In fact, the stock in the county generally speaking is in a healthy condition, except for these foolish horses, and they are dead.

Dr. Williams was called recently to the mountains to investigate a supposed new disease among the four-legged population. An autopsy revealed the animals had masticated mud pies. The veterinarian is unable to explain the sudden change of diet on the part of the mountain horses.

ANNUAL PARISH MEETING IS HELD

Latest Report Shows Trinity Episcopal in Prosperous Condition.

The annual parish meeting of Trinity Episcopal Church, Telegraph avenue and Twenty-ninth street, was held last evening in the guild hall. The report showed encouraging condition of the work and that the number of baptisms and confirmations for the past twelve months were over 100 per cent greater than for the corresponding twelve months previous. The rector, Rev. Clifton Macon, spoke of the need in equipment for the further development of the parish, among which were a new organ and a parish house. He stated that October, 1914, would mark the twentieth anniversary of the organization and that he thought the acquirement of these necessary things would give the occasion a fitting climax.

The following men were elected vestrymen and directors of the corporation: Joseph Sanders, Julian Mathieu, F. W. Reyland, W. B. Bakewell, F. A. Campbell, S. J. Taylor, Frederick Thornbury, H. C. Cheseborough, R. M. Veitch and Hugh H. Cox.

As delegates and alternates in the House of Churchwomen, which will meet in St. Mark's church in Berkley in January, the following were chosen:

Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Joseph Sanders, Mrs. J. E. McBrath, Miss Minnie Knight, Miss H. B. Bakewell, Mrs. C. R. Asplund, Mrs. S. J. Taylor, Mrs. F. A. Campbell, Mrs. F. W. Reyland, Miss M. W. Taylor.

STANDARD OIL IS REORGANIZED HERE

D. G. Scofield Becomes President of California Corporation; Court Decree.

RICHMOND, Dec. 6.—At a meeting of the board of directors, of the Standard Oil company, of California, in Richmond yesterday D. G. Scofield was elected President, W. S. Rheem, vice-president; and William Edwards, secretary. W. S. Miller remains as treasurer of the company, and it has been announced officially that there will be no changes in any of the other officers or heads of departments.

The above changes have been brought about in conformity with the late decree of the United States supreme court by which thirty-three subsidiary companies of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey were separated and their capital stock distributed pro rata to the stockholders of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey.

The California company is one of the largest of such companies and its business operations cover Alaska, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona and the Hawaiian Islands. It has distributing stations at all large trade centers on the coast, operates the great Richmond Refinery, has hundreds of miles of pipe lines, millions of barrels of steel tanks and reservoirs, thousands of acres of land, oil fields, in the state of California, and maintains a large fleet of tank steamers, both for coastwise and foreign export business in the products manufactured at its refineries. The company is now building a refinery at El Segundo near Los Angeles to take care of its business in that section of the country.

In all of its vast operations the company has about forty-eight hundred employees on its pay rolls.

D. G. Scofield has for many years been the vice-president of the company and W. S. Rheem a director and secretary.

HAMMOND MAKES REPLY TO CHARGE

Declares He Has Not Used Friendship to Prejudice of Jews.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—John Hazlitt Hammond last night made his first public speech since an attack upon his relations with the Russian government was made several weeks ago. As principal speaker at the meeting of the Hungarian Republican Club, to an audience including a large number of Jews, Hammond said:

"A charge has been made that I have used my friendship with the President to the prejudice of the Jewish race. It is, indeed, a grave charge, and I trust I should not have the hardihood to look into the friendly faces before me."

Mr. Hammond said the passport question had not become acute during his time in Russia, and that he never discussed the subject with any Russian or American official, certainly not with the President of the United States.

SHASTA SPRINGS MAN VICTIM OF WAVES?

SANTA CRUZ, Dec. 6.—The body of a man who was drowned on the beach near the old Cliff walk has not been identified, but some believe that the remains are those of Raymond L. Meyer of Shasta Springs, who disappeared on June 30 and when last heard of was at San Fran.

The body evidently had been in the water for over a week, and except for contusions and bruises about the face and body, it is in a good state of preservation. A coroner's inquest was held yesterday, and Niles Lewis of San Francisco, who has been conducting the search for Meyer, and the latter will be here at the coroner's inquest to determine whether they are those of Meyer.

The dead man answers almost exactly to the physical description of Meyer.

That is what is known as "good business," is it?

To course, if they had not done so, the would have been called fools if they gave away two cents profit a pound.

Willett gave the committee much statistical data on the world's operations in sugar. He denounced the gratuity given the Hawaiian sugar planters by free entry to the United States and expressed the opinion that free raw sugar would "starve" the best sugar men to death.

WE GRIND THEM IN OUR STORE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Representative Baker of California drew from W. T. Willett, a sugar expert witness before the House investigating committee yesterday, the magnitude of the profit made by the beet sugar interests on the rise to the consumer which began last June.

Willett said that when the New York price of sugar advanced a corresponding rise was announced in the West, although the beet sugar refiners of Colorado and California had an enormous supply of their product on hand.

Willett, who earlier in his testimony said that sugar had drifted back to a price six cents a pound, testified that the refiner who raised the sugar beets got no benefit from the rise. He was paid the same price for his beets that was named in the contracts dated months before.

"Why did the beet sugar manufacturers of California raise their price just because New York refiners 3000 miles away did so?" Baker asked.

"Because it was good business."

"That is what is known as 'good business,' is it?"

"Yes, course. If they had not done so, the would have been called fools if they gave away two cents profit a pound."

The administration expected to bring in early next month from the traction company by the car tax.

The decision vacating the offices filled by Socialist experts is based on a technicality in the selection of those officials, who are members of the Socialist party.

The chief of the list is C. A. Mullin, son of an asphalt official who was brought here from New York to conduct the investigation.

Four of his subordinates, all Socialists, come under the decision and as they have been in office for a large part of the administration, the city treasury and city controller are in a predicament.

They are probably responsible individually for the salaries paid these men and for money spent under their direction.

WAS SICK THIRTY YEARS

Bowie, Tex.—The remarkable case of Mrs. S. J. Embry who lives near here is attracting attention, on account of her restoration to health after many years of suffering. She tells of it in a letter as follows:

"During the past thirty years I have suffered greatly from nervous troubles and my health was badly run down. Late I learned of your cod liver and iron tonic, Vinol, and began taking it.

"I have so fast that I at once recommended it to two friends who were in poor health. My case was complicated, but Vinol did wonders for me. Every woman who suffers from nervousness and weakness should take Vinol and recover her health.
